

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to those persons, without whose help it would not be possible for me to complete this work.

It is a matter of great pleasure and pride for me to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Sandeep Gupta, Department of Sociology, University of Science & Technology, Meghalaya for the patience that he took in supervising and guiding me at every phase of my research work that has resulted in the thesis. I am thankful for his scholarly inputs in the thesis and all the help and encouragement extended to me throughout the research work.

I would also like to express my deepest gratitude to my family, for their financial and wholehearted support especially the encouragement, love, sacrifices, patience, and all the necessary help shown to me throughout my study. I am ever grateful to them.

My thanks also extend to all the offices and schools that have cooperated in providing me relevant material for doing this research. I am also indebted to all respondents for their willingness to be participants of the study in sharing their thoughts and experiences with me that made this study possible.

Finally, my deepest appreciation and thanks go to all the faculties from the Department of Sociology, USTM for sharing ideas for this research.

Above all, I give all the tributes to the Almighty God for everything.
