

Acknowledgements

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the help and guidance that I received from various people in different stages of this elaborate study to give its final shape. At the very onset, I would like to thank my guide, Dr. Sandeep Gupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology University of Science & Technology Meghalaya for supporting and guiding me during the entire research period. I remain indebted to him from the core of my heart. He is the one who has nurtured and sculpted me as a researcher. Without his profound knowledge in the subject and constant encouragement, the work might not have reached in its present stage and also it has been an exceptional privilege for me to be a recipient of his intellectual guidance. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all the faculties of the Department of Sociology, University of Science & Technology Meghalaya for their help and support during the course of my work. As the work is mainly based on primary data, I am also grateful to the D.C. office Ri-Bhoi district Nongpoh, BDO block development officer, Panchayat of the members and local organizations of the respective areas for their kind cooperation in introducing myself with the villagers and to all the respondents in the survey who gave their time and answered with patience the numerous questions in the interview schedule.

I would like to dedicate my research to my parents I am highly indebted to my family because they are the power and my strength that constantly supports me to do well in my life. I take this opportunity to thank my parents for whatever they have done for me. I simply have no words to thank my dad and mom 'Pa and Mei' Shri. Shoster Marsing & Smti. Venessa Marsing I dedicate to my entire family for what I am today is all because of you. I am really thankful to my siblings, Miss. Sonia Marsing, Miss. Duhaphi Annie Marsing, Mr. Florian George Marsing and Mr. Alberto hall Marsing, a very special person in my life, who has taken all the burden of the family so that I can sincerely complete my research in time. And I would like to thank my friend Mr.

Simon Lapang it's him and his activities which have always keeps me going during this difficult journey of research especially in collecting data during my field work. I thank him to for giving me the inner strength. I sincerely regret and demand apology to all of them whose name I miss to mention here though this is not intentional. Finally, I would like to take the whole responsibility for any error remaining in the study.

Above all, I give all the tributes to the Almighty God for everything.
