

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

At the very outset I would like to express my extreme gratefulness to my supervisor, Prof. A.C.Talukdar, Department of Political Science, USTM for his painstaking guidance and without whose invaluable supervision and suggestions this work would not have been completed. I am indebted to all the Faculty members of the Department of Political Science for all helps and support during my study. I would also like to thanks the officials of the Research Section, USTM for providing timely administrative support and extending all sorts of help whenever required.

I am grateful to the external experts- Prof. Niru Hazarika and Dr. Jayanta Krishna Sharma, Gauhati University for their comments and valuable suggestions during my presentation. I am extremely grateful to the officials of the Border Area Department as well as the Officers of the Government of Meghalaya who are associated with border hats whom I have interviewed during my field work.

I am extremely pleased to place on record my gratitude to Smt.A.G.Momin, Principal, Mendipathar College for extending all sorts of help and support during my study. I would like to express my sincere thanks to my colleague in the Department and all the faculty members of Mendipathar College for extending all kind helps and moral support for me.

I acknowledge my beloved parent (Late) Shri. K. Dunai and Smt. Netsy Swer, my sisters and brothers - Darihun, Arlinruby, Bakmen, Banrilang, Bada, Aljohn and Antony for encouragement and extending endless support during my study. Last but not the least I am grateful to my wife Smt. W.Marpna and my children- Iakimelari and Bakhrawkumar for being the source of inspirations and support throughout my study.
