

10. Complaint may relate to:
- a. A cognizable offence
 - b. A non-cognizable offence
 - c. Both a and b are correct
 - d. Must be for a non-cognizable offence as the police has no power to investigate such an offence

Answer the following: (Use descriptive answer sheet)

2X10=20

1. Mention two differences between acquittal and discharge.
2. State two objects of framing a charge.
3. What is an F.I.R? State its importance in one sentence.
4. What is a Police Report?
5. Mention two differences between Investigation and Inquiry.
6. When can a search warrant be issued?
7. Can a person who has filed a bond be arrested? If so under what circumstances?
8. Mention two essential requirements of a valid warrant.
9. Give two differences between a warrant case and a summons case.
10. What is a form of a summons? How can it be served?

-- -- --

(PART-B : Descriptive)

Time : 2 hrs. 30 min.

Marks : 50

[Answer the following questions]

1. Explain briefly the grounds on the basis of which a search warrant may be issued. Under what circumstances a police officer may search a place without warrant? 10
Or
Discuss the powers of the Superior officers of police. State the various powers of the courts where offences are triable under section 26-35 of the code. 3+7=10
2. What is a summons? Describe the procedure how a summons can be used to compel the production of things. 10
Or
When can a search-warrant be issued? State the grounds under which search can be done if suspected to contain of stolen property or forged documents. 5+5=10
3. Describe the following preventive actions taken by a police officer under the Code of 1973. 10
Or
When is a wife not entitled to maintenance from her husband? How does CrpC provide for maintenance of children and aged parents? 4+6=10
4. Explain the power of a police officer to investigate under section 164(a) under medical examination of a rape victim. 10
Or
What are the ingredients of an F.I.R? Is it necessary that FIR should contain all the details of manner of occurrence? Discuss. 3+7=10
5. State the requisite conditions required for the initiation of a proceedings. 10
Or
Describe the grounds of initiation of a complaint to a Magistrate. 10

= = *** = =